

PCSC BUG Scenarios – November 2014

Stage	String 1	String 2
1	Downrange friends A friendly outing on the links at a DeKalb County, Georgia, country club turned dangerous one afternoon when would-be robbers struck a golfing foursome traveling in three carts on a wooded trail. Robbers had plagued the course for months, and golfers had been warned. This time, however, one golfer was prepared. Three robbers, two of them armed, forced occupants of the first cart onto the ground and began rifling their pockets. As the driver of the third cart rounded a corner and saw what was happening, he pulled a gun from his golf bag, firing a shot that struck one of the ne'er-do-wells in the face. The wounded juvenile was sent to a local hospital in critical condition, (Atlanta Journal-Constitution, Atlanta, GA, 12/11/98)	Downrange family member A 17-year-old girl was outside her home getting something from her car when she was approached by two men wearing masks. They forced her inside the home at gunpoint. The teen's father saw the assailants with his daughter and retrieved a firearm. He then fired several shots. The teen's mother also retrieved a firearm and fired. Both men were struck. One of the home invaders collapsed on the living room floor and was pronounced dead at the scene. The second suspect returned fire before fleeing the home. He was later arrested after being treated for gunshot wounds to the chest and both thighs. (St. Louis Post-Dispatch, St. Louis, MO, 6/11/14)
2	Krick's Korner, Two men wearing masks entered a local convenience store around 2 p.m.. They held the store clerk at gunpoint. [A] man exiting a nearby apartment building saw the robbery taking place. He quickly drew his concealed firearm and ordered the robbers to stop as they made their way outside. They turned their guns on the concerned citizen, prompting him to fire his gun. Both robbers sustained fatal gunshot wounds to the chest. (/Reading Eagle/, Reading, Pa., 11/5/13)	Gym bag Victoria Davison was approached by two teenagers. One teen demanded, "I want the keys, car, everything." When Davison hesitated to comply with the carjackers, one of them indicated they had a gun. That is when Davison pulled out her own firearm from her gym bag and fired. One assailant suffered a single gunshot wound and fell to the ground, while the second assailant fled on foot. (/The Daily Caller/, Milwaukee, WI, 7/15/14)
3	Alligator attack When Alan Abele, 68, crept outside to investigate the thumping sounds at his back door around 4 a.m., he found an unexpected trespasser. After quickly grabbing a flashlight and his .357 magnum pistol, Abele opened the door to his back porch and was met with an angry 200-lb., 6-ft. alligator. The animal sprang toward Abele. He said, "I was crouched down and looking around when he hit me hard enough to knock me into a planter. The next thing I knew he's coming at me with his jaws open. ..." Abele pulled the trigger just in time as the alligator was just inches away. (/Tampa Bay Times/, Dunnellon, Fla., 10/24/13)	Dog attack Colby Patout and Debra Richard were witness to a vicious dog attack. "They were mauling this guy's leg," Patout said. The man was cycling when two dogs attacked, biting his legs and eventually pulling him off his bike. Patout and Richard rushed to help the man. Richard blocked traffic with her vehicle and Patout grabbed his gun. Patout tried to help the man, who was already seriously injured and bleeding excessively, but was forced to fire at one of the dogs, killing it. (KATC.com, Lafayette, LA, 12/23/13)
4	Struggle Everton Mosby, 24, was approached by two men outside of his home around 2 a.m. They forced Mosby inside the home where they beat him. During the assault, Mosby was able to pull out his concealed firearm. He fired at his attackers, striking both of them. One suspect was pronounced dead at the scene. The second assailant was treated for a gunshot wound to the knee before being placed under arrest. (/The Plain Dealer/, Cleveland, OH, 12/18/13)	Multiple downrange family members Police responded to a report of a burglary in progress around 11 p.m. A 56-year-old woman and her 15-year-old son were at home when two armed men broke in through the front door and demanded money. During the robbery, the son was shot in the leg by one of the offenders and the mother was shot in the arm when she attempted to flee. The woman's husband was in a different part of the home when he heard the gunshots. He retrieved a firearm and walked in on the robbery in progress. He fired several shots, striking both offenders. Both intruders fled the scene on foot. (The Valdosta Daily Times, Valdosta, GA, 6/18/14)
5	Verbal Challenge Dinah Burns was walking her dog on a path near an elementary school when two men approached her with a baseball bat. One of the men said, "You're coming with us." Burns asked what they wanted as she reached into her pocket. When the man with the baseball bat came toward her and raised the bat aggressively, Burns pulled out the firearm she carried. She pointed the gun at them and said, "I have this and I'm not afraid to use it." Both assailants backed off immediately and fled the scene. Burns and her dog were left unharmed, and no shots were fired. "[I'm] very thankful that it turned out the way it did, and hope it doesn't happen again, but I will be prepared," Burns said. (/The Daily Caller/, Lancaster, OH, 8/30/14)	